MR. A. M. POTTS SUSTAINS SER- IOUS INJURIES.

Yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, Mrs. A. M. Potts slipped and fell when walking on the concrete pavement in the rear of their home in the East End, and sustained a broken left arm at the wrist and a severe sprain of her right arm and side.

Dr. McGuire was called to give her surgical attention.

BUT THESE ARE TAME OATS, NOT WILD OATS.

Tonsorial artist Pearl Blythe, whose shop is in West Second street has a real live show window, the only one in captivity. Pearl is just entering the prime of life, which in other words means "just be is about ripe."

However, Pearl has waited until now to "show his wild oats." If you don't believe it look in his window at the beautiful growing crop of oats, now growing and flourishing like a green bay tree. This miniature and embryo oat-crop has been cut five times this winter, in fact since its in a barber shop it likes to be trimmed every week.

About the wild oats crop, Blythe declares his assistant in the shop, Artist Stoner Nowell, also has a hand in it.

FIRE SCARE

American Tobacco Company's Plant
Suffers $500 Loss This Morning.

This morning at 9 o'clock a fire starting in the re-drying machine No. 2 at the A. T. Co.'s half a million dollar plant, corner Union and Third streets, caused about $500 damage before the blaze was extinguished by the employes with the plants own apparatus.

The "Kinney Mac" was close by, but was blocked by a C. & O. freight train from assisting in subduing the blaze.

There was much excitement and smoke.

A Silk Sale Full of Pleasant Surprises

You will be pleasantly surprised by the size of the stock. By the moderate prices. By the charming variety of weaves and colors. By the complete assortment of crepes—the most wanted and scarcest silk in the market.

IN CREPES ALONE

We have SIXTY DIFFERENT pieces at 49c to $2 yd. No need to tell Mason County women, who are always style informed, how fashionable this beautiful weave is. It leads in every New York display of silks by the yard. Also alone and in conjunction with charmeuse or other silks it heads the fabrics used in ready-to-wear dresses. Plain and figured weaves in more colors than a rainbow includes.

POPLINS A SPRING VOGUE

that practical women welcome for these durable silks mean long and hard service. Two dozen or more pieces in several qualities—49c to $1.50 yd. Black and white as well as many lovely colors.
Plain and figured weaves.

THE NEW TAFFETAS

in their Chiffon weight are soft enough to cling and drape into the desired slim lines. They also lend themselves admirably to ruffles and puffings where bouffant effects are wanted. Black, Brown, and several dainty spring shades. $1 a yard, but 36 inches wide—a little goes a long way.

The above only hints of our stock—no space to tell of lovely wash silks, fancy pussy-willow silks figured and striped, big color range in charmeuse, wonderful values in striped and figured messalines. You won't believe all we have to offer unless you see for yourself. To call our stock "huge" is no exaggeration. Shop around and let us know if we are correctly informed that we have more silks than all the other stores in Maysville combined.
